

TWO MINING LAWYERS THAT GO THE DISTANCE.

COLLEEN KEYES AND BASIA DZIERZANOWSKA

McInnes Cooper congratulates Halifax lawyers Colleen Keyes and Basia Dzierzanowska who received

The Osgoode Certificate in Mining Law from Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto. This extensive program focuses on the mining industry's complex business and legal issues.

Colleen and Basia work with entrepreneurs, junior exploration companies, international mining conglomerates, governments and investment firms – in the advancement of mining projects in Atlantic Canada, nationally and internationally. For legal advice that leaves no stone unturned, contact us.

We work for the best: our clients.
